

Time Out

New York

Eating & Drinking 2009

Regional 2607 Broadway between 98th and 99th Sts.
212.666.1915

This restaurant exposes Upper West Siders to lesser known culinary gems from not one but 20 different Italian regions. Whole wheat noodle in duck ragu`, from Veneto, is the tastiest lesson you could ever hope to consume. Regional is big on wine, too, a reasonable by the glass selection.

The room is also a winner—a thoroughly modern, open space with high ceilings and more breathing room than most Euro bistros.